

ADAPTING TO COVID-19

The pandemic has affected everything and everyone - but that doesn't mean your student association is cutting back its services. Here's how SAGBC is adapting to an era of social distancing

HEALTH BENEFITS

healthbenefits@sagbc.ca

The Health Benefits team has both virtual and in-person office hours during the Fall. They are also conducting webinars showcasing the extents of the benefits program.

LEGAL SERVICES

legal@sagbc.ca

SAGBC's legal services advisor is available to meet over Zoom to answer student's legal questions. A small number of in-person appointments will also be available. Schedule your meeting here.

ACADEMIC SUPPORT SERVICES

academic@sagbc.ca

Both in-person and virtual appointments with our Academic Support Program will continue during the Fall 2020 Semester. Keep an eye out for ongoing webinars on student's rights and GBC's academic policies. More info can be found here.

SAFEWALK

safewalkcoord@sagbc.ca

For students on campus, Safewalk's still providing walks on campus. And if you're studying remotely, it's launching SafeTalk, a support service offered over the phone at the end of September

STUDENT NUTRITION ACCESS PROGRAM

communitycoordinator@sagbc.ca

You can schedule a time to access the SNAP team's food hamper on campus this fall. They are also providing resources and webinars on eating healthily and affordably.

COMMUNITY CARE CENTRE

community@sagbc.ca

You can still book individual peer-to-peer support sessions conducted virtually & in-person. We are also planning digital workshops, webinars and events aimed at supporting equity groups.

CLUBS & NETWORKS

clubs@sagbc.ca

The SAGBC clubs team is just as active as ever - with virtual events and meetings and a growing list of student-led networks. Check them out today and see how all our clubs keeping active during quarantine.

EVENTS & RECREATION

recreation@sagbc.ca

SAGBC is producing lots of grab-and-go events for students on campus. We've also arranged delivery and curbside pickup services to distribute our frosh kit. And keep an eye out for our virtual events like Paint Nights, Yoga sessions, Escape Rooms and more!

STUDENT MEDIA

communications@sagbc.ca

SAGBC funds The Dialog, GBC's independent student newspaper, and this fall will see an emphasis placed on the paper's digital presence, while still providing the same exceptional coverage
