The screenshot shows the 'International Student in Post-Secondary Program Health Insurance Waiver' form. At the top is the Student Association logo (SA) and the title. Below the title is a paragraph explaining the waiver opportunity for international students at George Brown College for the winter 2021 term. It states that students can request a credit/refund for health insurance fees if they are not in Canada but residing in their home country. A note specifies that this is not applicable to students who were charged the health insurance fee in the fall 2020. Below this, it says 'To be eligible for this credit/refund, you must complete the following questions:'. There are two input fields: 'Student ID:' and 'Student Name:'. Below these are three numbered questions: 1. 'Will you be residing in your country of citizenship (home country)?' with 'Yes' and 'No' radio buttons. 2. 'If you are not residing in your country of citizenship (home country), in which country are you residing during the winter 2021 term?' with a dropdown menu. 3. 'Please provide a brief explanation why you are not residing in Canada during the winter 2021 term. Note: as part of George Brown College's Covid-19 Readiness plan, international students travelling to Canada are required to have a valid medical insurance coverage.' with a large text area.
