Subject Line: <your name>: CCC, Black Students' Support Staff Application

Job Overview:

Are you passionate about supporting Black students' health wellness, and excellence?

Do you believe in a college experience where equity, harm reduction, and consent is honoured everywhere?

The Community Care Centre (CCC) is a vibrant provider of integrated health services, community programs, and peer education initiatives that enable student wellness. The CCC recognizes the importance of peer support and making connections through lived experiences. It is a place for all students – students who care about social justice and each other. Specializing in serving those who traditionally face barriers to care (e.g. Black; First Nations, Inuit, Métis; Disabilities; LGBTQ; Racialized/International; and Women & Trans students). Through the Student Association, this role staffs community centres, provides care, and empowers students from the margins to centre their needs.

This work occurs creatively in-person and online, on campus and in community.

GENERAL RESPONSIBILITIES:

Core Work:

- Staffing/maintaining the Community Centres as welcoming, accessible, inclusive, and safer spaces open to all (the day-to-day functioning of the physical spaces, and the adaption to virtual spaces)
- Delivering a range of judgement-free front-line professional peer supports and creative care practices that empower students in their capacity-building for self-care, mutual care, and collective care (e.g. workshops, trainings, meetings, programming, drop-ins, activities)
- Engaging students by providing peer supports, referrals, info, and assistance in accessing resources
- Administering resources and education outreach on care/health/wellness/safety campaigns (e.g. sexual health, consent, harm reduction, trans inclusion) as assigned
- Strengthening and maintaining relationships/collaborations across SA departments, community groups/partners

More About the Role:

- Provides supports, active listening, and community referrals
- Supports by positively participating in Centre-run events as assigned
- Helps implement campaigns, including equity awareness work and education
- Welcomes opportunity to source/design/deliver equity-based learning through effective presentations
- Gets creative. Thinks strategic. Crafts and delivers effective outreach/communication plans
- Distributes information to students (e.g. tabling, class talks, webinars, poster, online delivery, etc.)
- Appreciates planning and processes. Reports on deliverables and outcomes.
- Effectively participates in meetings, trainings, learning opportunities, and event attendance
- Builds up others by positively participating in Centre-run events/programming (in-person and online)
- Takes great care in maintaining cleanliness of spaces. Organizes data and resources

YOU HAVE:

- MUST IDENTIFY AS A MEMBER OF THE COMMUNITY IN WHICH YOU ARE APPLYING
- An anti-oppression analysis; you treat all with dignity
- Willingness to engage students across different levels of awareness
- Demonstrated understanding of peer support, and how it differs from counselling or crisis support
- Active listening, compassion, and conflict transformation skills
- Enthusiasm to accept hard work, including care work/emotional labour; Balance self-care with deliverables
- The talent to accept feedback without negativity or defensiveness. The empathy to give criticism with care
- Willingness to learn and teach; you extend patience and care to yourself and others
- Generosity to share your skills/networks/education. You connect peers to ideas, each other, opportunities
- People oriented, with the ability to work independently with minimal supervision
- Reliability/Dependability; you honour time commitments (e.g. shifts), deadlines/timeliness, and relationships
- Adaptability; able to navigate change, ambiguity, potential distractions, and shifting demands/priorities
- Growing confidence to present; you're willing to be where the people are (including on screen/video)
- Growing competencies with Zoom, Microsoft teams, Google suite, Facebook live, Instagram live
- Familiarity with systemic barriers facing students. Understand the impacts of oppression on health

YOU MIGHT ALSO HAVE:

- Demonstrated understanding of anti-racism and anti-colonialism frameworks
- Lived/work/volunteer experience with focus on Black communities
- Previous post-secondary education. Familiarity with the importance of student unions
- Peer support trainings/certifications or related experience
- Previous training work/volunteer experience with crisis call centres/support lines
- Experience with group facilitation, and/or coalition work; and/or event and project planning
- Photography skills an asset
