

FAQS: Student Media

Academic Term	Fall 2024
Program Operations Days	Monday to Friday
Program Operations Hours	8 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Question	What is The Dialog?
Answer	The Dialog is the campus and community newspaper of George Brown College, established 1982. The Dialog is published by The Dialog Collective under the auspices of the Student Association of George Brown College.

Question	Are you hiring?
Answer	Yes! We currently have multiple positions available for reporters. Please visit dialognews.ca/jobs for more information.

Question	What types of content do you publish?
Answer	We publish news, feature, Op/Ed, arts & entertainment, sports, science & technology, and fun content that covers GBC and the Toronto communities.

Question	Where can I read Dialog stories?
Answer	You can read Dialog stories online at DialogNews.ca or in our Monthly printed papers, found at each campus.

Question	Who writes for The Dialog?
Answer	GBC students are hired each year to work in Editor, Reporter and Graphic Design roles.

Question	Can I volunteer to work for The Dialog?
Answer	Yes! The Dialog welcomes volunteers in addition to part-time staff. Please contact Communications@SAGBC.ca for more information.

Question	I have a story idea. How can I share it?
Answer	Please email your idea to Communications@SAGBC.ca .

Date updated:	7/31/2024
----------------------	-----------